Dear Scholarship Applicant:

*Armando E. Batastini
Secretary*

Enclosed you will find an application for the scholarships to be awarded through the Rhode Island Bar Foundation Scholarship Program for academic year 2024 - 2025.

*Steven J. Boyajian
Treasurer*

The Thomas F. Black, Jr. Scholarships, Patrice A. Tarantino Memorial Scholarship, Nicole J. Benjamin Scholarship, and Papitto Opportunity Scholarships are one-year, non-renewable awards, for full-time students who are Rhode Island residents who will be entering their first year of law school in September 2024.

*Kathleen M. Bridge
Executive Director*

For the academic year 2024 - 2025, the Foundation intends to grant Thomas F. Black, Jr. (2), Patrice A. Tarantino (1), and Nicole J. Benjamin (1) scholarships in the amount of $25,000 each. The Foundation's Scholarship Committee seeks applications from candidates without regard to race, color, religion, country of ancestral origin, handicap, age, sex, or sexual orientation. The Committee will endeavor to make awards to assure that, over time, the recipients reflect the diversity of the Rhode Island population. Those who wish to apply for the Nicole J. Benjamin scholarship must emphasize their leadership skills and activities in addition to the other criteria set forth below.

Two additional scholarships from the Papitto Opportunity Connection Foundation (Papitto) in the amount of $25,000 each will also be awarded to candidates who are committed to actively promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in society. In addition to the criteria set forth below, Papitto candidates must provide specific examples of strategies that have been undertaken, or will be undertaken, within both the legal profession and the broader community to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion. Papitto candidates will need to consider how they believe their unique background, experiences, and perspectives have contributed, or will contribute, to their endeavors to foster a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive community.

The objective of the Bar Foundation's Scholarship Program is to support high legal practice standards in Rhode Island by providing financial assistance to Rhode Island residents who show promise that they are likely to become outstanding lawyers, hopefully in Rhode Island, who will adhere to such standards and who will need such assistance in order to study law at quality law schools.

Scholarship awards shall be exclusively for tuition and related expenses for persons who enroll as full-time students in programs leading to the award of the L.L.B. or J.D. degree offered by law schools located in one of the United States or in the District of Columbia and which are accredited by the American Bar Association. Each scholarship award will be made on the basis of:

1. Demonstrated financial need, based upon your personal and family financial circumstances, as well as the extent in which you have helped to finance your undergraduate career by past and present part-time and/or full-time work efforts;
2. Superior academic performance;
3. Community and public service, and
4. Details as to the reasonable likelihood that you will in the future provide and contribute highly professional legal services to the citizens of Rhode Island.

Please complete and return (1) the application, and (2) a personal statement, along with the information required below, to tgallo@ribar.com or to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation, 41 Sharpe Drive, Cranston, RI 02920, so as to arrive by March 31, 2024. The personal statement should convey something about your personal education and background, your personal and family situation, why you believe you would be a worthy recipient of the scholarship, or any other information you feel would be helpful to the Scholarship Committee in considering your application.

It is important that you address in detail in your application and in your personal statement, each of the guidelines listed above. In particular, please keep in mind that applicants have the burden of demonstrating their financial need to our Scholarship Committee. A detailed explanation of the extent to which you can or cannot obtain family financial assistance in your first year in law school should be submitted as part of your personal statement.

You should arrange to have the registrar of your college or university forward a copy of your academic transcript to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation.

Two letters of recommendation are required from persons who know you. One of the letters should be from a school official familiar with your academic record. Identify the persons writing these letters on the application and request that they forward their letters directly to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation.

You must also forward to us a copy of the SAR report from the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), as well as a copy of your 2023 Federal Tax Return. Please white out all Social Security numbers.

Finally, for your information, attached is a form entitled “Financial Package.” Once you have been admitted to a law school which you choose to attend next year, you must immediately complete, sign, date, and return the enclosed form to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation. If, however, you have been admitted to one or more law schools and have not yet chosen which one you will attend, you must complete, sign, date, and return a separate Financial Package form for each law school which has accepted you and which you might possibly attend. You must also thereafter advise the Rhode Island Bar Foundation of any subsequent choice by you to attend a law school which has admitted you. All such up-to-date and completed Financial Package forms must be returned to the Rhode Island Bar Foundation as soon as possible.

The Committee reserves the right to decline to consider an incomplete application. If you have any questions, please call the Rhode Island Bar Foundation office at (401) 421-6541 or email tgallo@ribar.com.

The Rhode Island Bar Foundation welcomes your scholarship application and extends best wishes as you plan to enter law school.

Sincerely yours,

Theresa Gallo
Program Director

THE PAPITTO OPPORTUNITY CONNECTION LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIP2024

Founded in December 2020, the Papitto Opportunity Connection was formed by Barbara Papitto as a continuation of the long-time commitment she and her late-husband Ralph have made to creating educational opportunities and supporting diversity, equity, and inclusion in Rhode Island.

By checking Box #23 on the Scholarship form and answering the prompt below, you are indicating that you would also like to be considered for this Scholarship.

Please explain your commitment to actively promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion in society. Please provide specific examples of strategies you have undertaken, or intend to undertake, within both the legal profession and the broader community. Consider how you believe your unique background, experiences, and perspectives have contributed, or will contribute, in your endeavors to foster a more diverse, equitable, and inclusive community.
(Please use a separate sheet; maximum word count: 1,000)

THE NICOLE J. BENJAMIN SCHOLARSHIP2024

Founded in 2023, the Nicole J. Benjamin Scholarship was established by Past Bar Foundation President John A. Tarantino in recognition of the many leadership skills and contributions of Bar President Nicole J. Benjamin. Nicole has served as the Board Chair of Leadership Rhode Island and as Vice Chair of the Roger Williams University School of Law Board of Directors. She is a past recipient of a Thomas F. Black, Jr. Memorial Scholarship, and she founded the Leadership Academy of the Rhode Island Bar Association.

By checking Box #24 on the Scholarship form and answering the prompt below, you are indicating that you would also like to be considered for this scholarship.

Please tell us what you believe is necessary for a person to be an effective leader. Please also explain your leadership skills and activities and why you feel you possess the qualities of a good leader.
