

2016 VICTORIA M. ALMEIDA SERVANT LEADER AWARD

Named for its first recipient, Victoria M. Almeida, this Rhode Island Bar Association award is presented to an individual who demonstrates the principles and values of Servant Leadership and who inspires justice. Servant leadership is the ability of a leader to humbly regard others as more important, to care for each other; to not just be civil to each other, but to aspire to the greater virtue of being good to each other. Servant Leadership seeks to encourage others in achieving the goals of the Rhode Island Bar Association while remaining faithful to the mission and values of the organization and preserving its integrity. The Award Committee is particularly interested in attorney actions most closely reflecting those of the award's namesake. All nominations are due no later than March 4, 2016. Postal mail or email nominations and/or direct questions to:
