

2014 Florence K. Murray Award Nominations

The Rhode Island Bar Association is now accepting 2014 Florence K. Murray Award nominations due no later than March 5, 2014.

The Rhode Island Bar Association annually presents the Florence K. Murray Award to a person who by example or otherwise has influenced women to pursue legal careers, opened doors for women attorneys, or advanced opportunities for women within the legal profession. The Award is named in honor of the first recipient, Hon. Florence K. Murray, who, in a distinguished 56 years at the bar, pioneered the causes of women in the law as the first woman attorney elected to the Rhode Island Senate, the first woman Justice on the Superior Court, the first woman Presiding Justice of the Superior Court, and the first woman on the Rhode Island Supreme Court. The nominee is selected by a committee composed of six members of the Bar appointed to staggered two-year terms by the President of the Bar Association.
