Speakers

Karen G. DelPonte, Esq.
Cameron & Mittleman LLP

Stephen M. Prignano, Esq.
McIntyre Tate LLP

Kevin A. Papa, CPA, CVA, ABV, CFF
Piccerelli, Gilstein & Company, LLP

With estate planning strategies becoming more complex and divorces on the rise, it is important for all attorneys to understand how estate planning and divorce laws intersect. There are important tax consequences lurking in the details that especially divorce and estate planning attorneys need to understand thoroughly. The speakers will discuss the following topics during the course of the seminar.

- Estate taxes and the loss of the marital deduction.
- Negotiating to use your spouse’s gift tax exemption.
- How to “amend” the existing Irrevocable Trust.
- What estate planning documents can be changed when in the divorce process.
- Business valuation issues for divorce and estate planning purposes.
- Recent changes to tax law regarding alimony.
- Effect of death during divorce.
- Treatment of trusts during divorce.
- Transmutation of assets.
- Recent developments regarding common law marriage.
