The average private pay cost for one month's stay in a nursing home is a staggering $9,113. In this seminar, we will discuss how to determine if an individual qualifies to receive RI Medical Assistance and how you, as the attorney, can help your clients navigate the complex rules and application process. This is intended to be an introductory course.

This program will walk you through the interplay between Medicare and Medicaid, how to determine if a client, whether married or single, qualifies for Medical Assistance, the application process, asset transfers and transfer penalties, the dreaded look-back period, common traps for the unwary attorney, and ethical issues such as spotting elder abuse and communicating with clients and family members. If you are an attorney advising elderly clients, attend this program and ensure you are fully informed. Sign up today.
