Fair Housing Issues in Rhode Island

1.0 RICLE credit

SPEAKERS

MARISSA JANTON, ESQ. Rhode Island Commission for Human Rights

Federal and state fair housing laws prohibit discrimination in the rental, sale, or financing of dwellings because of race, sex, familial status, religion, disability, and other protected classes.

Is it also illegal to refuse to rent to those who have service animals or those who use medical marijuana? What if there is a no smoking or a no pet clause in the rental agreement? What happens when a complaint is filed alleging unfair housing practices? This program will review recent updates in the law including current protected classes, liability, covered properties, harassment and retaliation, sexual harassment, and reasonable accommodations. There will be a review of regulations and procedure at the Commission and best practices at the agency.

Expungement & Sealing: A Comprehensive Approach to Effective Alleviation of Collateral Consequences

MICHAEL A. DILAURO, ESQ. Assistant Public Defender Director of Training & Legislative Liaison Office of the Public Defender EMMETT K. HARDIMAN, ESQ. Assistant Public Defender Office of the Public Defender

After attending this program, you will able to quickly and effectively address a client's collateral consequences by making creative and comprehensive use of current Rhode Island law regarding expungement and sealing. You will also learn to recognize who may qualify for expungement and sealing (i.e., first offenders, multiple misdemeanant, deferred sentence, and decriminalized offense), and the discretionary criteria to do so. Whether you practice in criminal law or have an interest in expunging and sealing records, this program will provide you with a complete "cheat sheet" you can use on your next records inquiry.
