An Overview of the Adoption Process

1.0 RICLE credit

SPEAKER

SUSAN M. FINK, ESQ.
Attorney-at-Law

Adoption can change the life of a child's future forever, but what does the adoption process entail? After attending this program, attendees will be able to:

- understand adoption criteria and qualifications;
- identify assistance resources;
- recognize the different types of adoption, such as foster parents, adoptions by relatives, agency adoptions (both state and international);
- and, ethical issues, such as confidentiality and conflicts of interest.

Ensure you are equipped to answer your client's questions regarding the adoption process. Sign up today.

Defeating Summary Judgement Motions Or, Just the Facts!

1.0 RICLE credit

SPEAKER

HENRY S. MONTI, ESQ.
Gemma Law Associates, Inc.

The great fear plaintiffs' attorneys have in a negligence case is that based on the law, summary judgement will be granted against their client.

Come to this seminar and learn how the facet, especially based on recent case law, can defeat a summary judgement motion.

Our speaker has been an attorney in Rhode Island for over 35 years and has argued against summary judgement in over 100 cases.
