SEMINAR INFORMATION

“Ethics Chess: Problems and Strategies for the Virtuous Lawyer”

is a challenging and interactive CLE seminar that provides real tools and strategies to help the practicing attorney see ethics problems in the offing, avoid them if possible, and deal with them effectively if they cannot be avoided.

As ethics rules become more complex, it is increasingly apparent that the objective of any prudent lawyer must be to avoid pre-unethical conditions. You must recognize them and learn to take steps to avoid them several moves ahead. You need to be proficient at ethics chess.

This seminar tests the attorney’s ethical chess skills while demonstrating some useful new moves. A challenging, up-to-the-minute, informative, and quickly-paced session is a key to thinking as an ethical attorney. Though new developments can prompt some additions and substitutions, the program will include

- Ethics Chess: The Basics: (Introduction) Principles of compliance with the rules, legal ethics and professionalism, ethical decision-making in a legal context
- Recent Games: Important developments in legal ethics that every lawyer needs to know.

This program is sponsored by Aon Affinity Insurance Services, Inc., administrators of the Aon Attorneys Advantage Program, and the Rhode Island Bar Association. It is free and will be repeated five times. It is open to all members of the Rhode Island Bar Association. Each attendee will receive three ethics credits by participating in the entire seminar. Register early to guarantee your seat.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

JACK MARSHALL is president and founder of ProEthics, and personally develops its original training programs. He is also its primary ethics trainer, having created and facilitated more than 200 different interactive seminars, retreats and training sessions on ethics, compliance, leadership, management, and harassment.

Jack has taken the experience gleaned from a diverse career in law, public policy, academia and theater, and applied it to the field of legal, business, workplace and organizational ethics. His commentary on topics ranging from leadership to ethics to popular culture have appeared on The O’Reilly Factor, O Magazine, The Virginia Monthly, The Weekly Standard, Trial, and numerous state bar publications. He has been featured on many public policy radio and TV shows, including NPR’s “Tell Me More,” PBS’s Religion and Ethics Weekly, and many local and internet broadcasts.
